

Disclaimer

1. General Information: By using this payment website, you agree to the following terms and conditions. You warrant that:

1.1.1 You have the appropriate authority to validly accept the Terms and are able to and will meet your obligations in relation to the Terms.

1.1.2 The information supplied by you is true and correct.

2. Service Limitations: The Judiciary does not warrant that the Web Portal and Services will meet User's requirements or that the system will be uninterrupted, timely, secure, or error-free.

3. Limitation of Liability: The Judiciary shall not be liable to the User or any other party for any damage, loss, cost, or expense suffered by the User or any other party as a result of:

1.3.(a) An action brought by a third party even if such loss was reasonably foreseeable or The Judiciary has been advised of the possibility of the User or any other party suffering or incurring the same;

1.3.(b) The reliance on or use of any data, information, content, or matter provided by The Judiciary via the Services or the accuracy, correctness, or completeness thereof;

1.3.(c) Any error, interruption, or other occurrence whatsoever arising out of any form of communications or other facilities not provided by The Judiciary;

1.3.(d) Any occurrence not due to The Judiciary's direct default.

4. Indirect or Consequential Loss: In no event shall The Judiciary be liable for any loss of business, profit, goodwill, or any type of special, indirect, or consequential loss to the Users.

5. Indemnification: The User shall indemnify and keep The Judiciary harmless against any damage or claim by any parties which may arise out of this Agreement and agree to notify such parties in writing that The Judiciary shall have no liability to them. In the event any claim is made by such parties against The Judiciary, the User shall take all steps to enforce its rights including but not limited to the institution of legal proceedings if necessary, against such parties to restrain them from bringing such claims against The Judiciary.

6. Third-Party Dealings: The Judiciary shall not be responsible for any dealings:

1.6.(i) between the User and third parties or

1.6.(ii) between the User and another User, whether or not such dealings are facilitated through the use of the Services.

7. Payment Processing:

1.7.1 The Payment portal facilitates the payment of Court Fees and Fines through third-party payment gateways. While The Judiciary takes all reasonable measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of your payment information, we cannot guarantee the security of information transmitted over the internet or stored on our servers. Users are advised to review the terms and conditions of the payment gateway provider for information regarding their data security practices.

1.7.2 Users are solely responsible for any transactions made through the App, including the accuracy of payment information and any associated fees or charges incurred.

8. Security and Confidentiality:

1.8.1 The Judiciary takes all reasonable measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of user data. However, no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is 100% secure and reliable, and The Judiciary cannot guarantee absolute security.

1.8.2 Users are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of their account credentials and for any activities that occur under their account.

1.8.3 The Judiciary shall not be liable for any unauthorized access to or use of user data, including but not limited to information stored on the App or transmitted through the Services.

9. No Claims Against The Judiciary: The User agrees that it shall not bring any claim, action, or proceeding whatsoever against The Judiciary in respect of any damage, loss, cost, and expense arising from the use or reliance on the data, information, content, or matter provided by The Judiciary via the Website or Services.
